User Guidelines for Student Amenities:

- Information of the booking and the applicant may be released to other university departments/offices for administrative uses.
- Confirmed booking cannot be transferred, sublet or used for other purposes.
- If you want to cancel or change the booking, please write to ssa@ust.hk as early as possible and before the event day.
- All pre-set equipment and furniture cannot be removed from the venue. Pirated software is not allowed as it is a criminal offence.
- Do not soil or damage the stage and other furniture in the venue.
- Consumption of food / drink is not allowed (except water) without prior approval. Cooking activity is not allowed.
- Alcoholic drinks of any kind are not allowed to be brought into and/or consumed at Student Amenities managed by DSTO.
- Any misuse or abuse identified on the spot, DSTO may curtail the event, or stop it immediately in case of serious violation.
- Tidy up and reinstate the venue properly, remove all your items and leave before the approved booking end time.
- A charge may be levied for any loss or late return of key/access card.
- You will be held responsible for any loss and damage of the facilities.
- The use of the venue and the facilities must comply with HKSAR laws and University rules and regulations.
- Penalty may be imposed in the event of no-show or any unlawful or inappropriate use of the venue and/or facilities, e.g., suspend the booking right of DSTO venues/equipment for a certain period, and/or cancel your approved bookings.
- The university reserves the right to change or cancel an approved booking under a special circumstance. An alternative would be provided as far as possible.
- Additional notes for Workshop in LG5: It is designated for preparation works as well as temporary storage. During your booked timeslots, you may experience interruptions from other users who need to access to retrieve or store their belongings.
- Additional notes for Tsang Shiu Tim Art Hall
 - Activities open to the public would be considered case by case. According to the Places of Public Entertainment (PPE) Ordinance (Cap.172), the event organizers are required to apply for "Temporary Places of Public Entertainment" Licence if your entertainment listed in the ordinance admits general public. For details: https://www.fehd.gov.hk/english/licensing/Guide_on_Types_of_Licences_Required.html
 - Do not move the piano without approval by DSTO. Otherwise, you may be charged for the tuning/ damage costs.
 - Do not use the space outside TST Art Hall without prior approval.

Declaration & Signature:

I, on behalf of the student organization/organizing unit above stated, agree to comply with HKSAR laws, University rules and regulations and the "User Guidelines for Student Amenities". Violations may result in immediate booking cancellation and other consequences under the law and/or University rules and regulations.
